Proclamation

Greek Independence Day

March 25, 2024

WHEREAS: On this historic day, we commemorate the unyielding spirit and indomitable courage of the Greek people, who, through fervent determination and unwavering resolve, secured their freedom and sovereignty;

WHEREAS: The struggle for independence ignited a flame of liberty that illuminated the hearts and minds of all Greeks, inspiring generations to come to uphold the values of democracy, justice, and national pride;

WHEREAS: With unyielding resolve, the heroes of the Greek War of Independence defied tyranny and oppression, igniting the flames of liberty that continue to burn brightly to this day. Their sacrifices and unwavering commitment to the ideals of democracy and self-determination serve as an inspiration to us all.

WHEREAS: On this auspicious occasion, we reaffirm our commitment to safeguarding the principles of liberty, equality, and fraternity. May the spirit of Greek Independence Day inspire us to strive for a brighter future, where all people can live in peace, prosperity, and harmony.

NOW
THEREFORE: I, Mayor Bob Wells, do hereby proclaim March 25, 2024 as Greek Independence Day, and call upon all citizens to stand in solidarity with the Greek people, celebrating their rich heritage and vibrant culture.
